EXHIBITION | 04 - 24 DECEMBER 2024

'The trash goes out on Wednesday' presents Lara Weilers (*1999, LU) first solo show in Luxembourg. Lara's works delve into the idea of "everyday heroes." She depicts ordinary objects that, in our consumer-driven culture, have become so prevalent that they often go unnoticed, taken for granted, or regarded as unimportant. Thus her paintings serve as snapshots of contemporary life.

Lara Weiler pursued her Fine Art studies at the Hochschule der Bildenden Künste Saar in Saarbrücken, Germany, completing her MA in 2024. Recently, she was awarded the Prix Pierre Werner and her work has been acquired by the National Museum of Art and History (MNAHA) in Luxembourg.
